Family Members Profile

Father: Albert, age 43, steel worker. He lost his $4,000/month job some months ago. He has been receiving unemployment compensation of $350.00/week but now it has run out.

Mother: Ann, age 42, high school graduate. She has never worked.

Daughter: Alice, age 17, honor student in high school. She is looking forward to college.

Son: Al Jr., age 15, in junior high school. He is in counseling for a shoplifting incident one year ago.

Setting

You live in a middle class suburb in a three-bedroom home on which you are paying off a mortgage. You owe two loans to the bank; one for remodeling which was completed before father lost his job; and one for your car. The car was purchased two years ago and your current equity is $3,000. You use the car for job-seeking, shopping and getting the children to their school which is two-plus miles from home.

Income

None at the present. $250.00 left in savings account.
