

Michelle Wargo - Series Host

Michelle Wargo has over 15 years of experience in broadcast communications and a Bachelor's degree in Liberal Studies with a Minor in Marketing from the University of Central Florida.

Originally from Erie, Pennsylvania, Michelle spent her high school years as a DJ at Gannon University's radio station, WERG. Following a successful career in radio, Michelle took her talents to television, becoming the first on-camera traffic reporter for CFN13 and supporting the morning news team at WESH Channel 2.

Michelle spent four years writing and producing award winning television shows and marketing campaigns while at Red Apples Media where she was awarded the Platinum MarCom in 2014 for writing and producing the August episode of Hometown Health TV.

Michelle attends Mass at the Basilica of the National Shrine of Mary Queen of the Universe.

As a huge Disney fan, Michelle can often be found somewhere on Disney property. She works with WDWNT.com as an announcer for WDW News Tonight, their very popular podcast and radio show. Michelle enjoys attending networking events and volunteers her time as a media committee member for MOROF, Medical Office Resources of Florida and Orlando Young Professionals.
